

I am appalled and angered. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. This is clearly ANTI-AMERICAN!

Sinclair abuses the public airwaves free of charge, and, although obligated by law to serve the public interest, chooses to corrupt and exploit the system. But when large companies control the airwaves, we all lose what is the heart of freedom in our democracy.

Sinclair's evil actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.
